

ROLE CHARTER
OF
THE CHARTERED SECRETARY/
GOVERNANCE PROFESSIONAL

The Chartered Secretary/ Governance Professional is an untiring advocate for good governance.

Integrity, accountability and transparency are the key attributes of the Chartered Secretary / Governance Professional.

The Chartered Secretary/ Governance Professional takes action guided by the rule of law, professional behaviour and morality to serve the well-being of the organisation and its stakeholders.

Conforming to high standard of professional competency, the Chartered Secretary/ Governance Professional is in constant pursuit of knowledge and skills to be able to guide or lead in any situation.

Specially trained in the complex disciplines of corporate governance, corporate secretaryship, corporate financial management and corporate administration, the Chartered Secretary/ Governance Professional practices and upholds the highest standards that underpin the value of good governance.